Public Encouraged to Attend...

GEORGIA DOT SEEKS INPUT ON PROPOSED LINCOLN COUNTY PROJECT

LINCOLNTON – A Public Information Open House is scheduled for Thursday, November 19, to discuss the Georgia Department of Transportation's proposed project for Lincoln County. The meeting will be held at The Lincoln Center, 160 May Avenue in Lincolnnton. The public is invited to attend any time between 5 and 7 p.m. No formal presentation will be given.

The purpose of this informal open house is to provide the public an opportunity to ask questions and comment on the proposed project to replace the existing bridge on State Route 47 over the Little River at J. Strom Thurmond Lake. Lincoln County residents interested in learning more are encouraged to attend, view displays, express thoughts and concerns with Georgia DOT representatives, and provide written comments. After this event, meeting handouts will be available online. To access, visit Georgia DOT's Web site at www.dot.ga.gov; select General Public; then Public Involvement.

"We are eager to hear the viewpoints and concerns of all area residents," said Tony Collins, Georgia DOT District Engineer in Tennille. "The Georgia DOT encourages all interested parties to provide their input for this project."

The Georgia Department of Transportation is committed to providing a safe, seamless and sustainable transportation system that supports Georgia's economy and is sensitive to both its citizens and its environment. Additional transportation revenues are imperative to grow and sustain Georgia's economic vitality and quality of life through the 21st Century. Georgia is the 3rd fastest-growing state in the nation, yet 49th in per capita spending on transportation. For general information on the Georgia DOT, please visit our Web site (www.dot.ga.gov).
